

Hixson Architecture, Engineering, Interiors Announces New President and CEO

Cincinnati, OH (June 4, 2018) — Hixson Architecture, Engineering, Interiors, one of the top firms in North America, has appointed Greg Hammond as president and CEO. J. Wickliffe (Wick) Ach, former president and CEO, is retiring after 40 years with the company.

“Hixson has a long-standing history of delivering exceptional value and quality projects for our clients while never losing focus on living our company values,” said Hammond. “Our leadership’s plan is to build upon the strong foundation that has been developed over our first 70 years while evolving our company to meet the ever-changing needs of our associates and clients.”

A 16-year veteran of Hixson, Hammond is a shareholder, member of the board and most recently, manager of production planning. In addition to his work at Hixson, Hammond serves on the board of the Architectural Foundation of Cincinnati, Cincinnati Regional Business Committee and Easterseals Tristate.

About Hixson:

Hixson is an architecture, engineering and interior design firm specializing in projects for corporate office environments, retail projects, R&D facilities, and industrial processing plants. Listed as one of the top firms in North America, Hixson delivers insight and advocacy leading to intelligent project execution through 16 integrated technical disciplines. To learn more, please visit www.hixson-inc.com.